The Islander

DAILY COLONIST MAGAZINE

VICTORIA, B.C., SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1959

This 1,000-foot rampart marks the entrance to Active Pass. It is Mount Sutil, on the south end of Galiano Island. At its foot is Collinson Point, named for a pioneer settler who was robbed at gunpoint by Boone Helm and a companion in the Caribou in the '60's. Cecil Clark, whose story on pages 8 and 9 tells of the episode, took this photograph.